WHAT DO WE DO NOW!

The Sierra Pacific Synod Hunger Network is planning a Zoom event on Wednesday, November 19th titled "What Do We Do Now!" I'm attaching the flyer as a PDF, a jpeg and a black and white Word doc. The PDF prints 2 to a page. We are very pleased to have as presenters, Pastor Ben Hogue: Director of Ministry Engagement and Support ELCA Development, Office of the Presiding Bishop and Pastor Nelson Rabell-Gonzalez, Pastor at Iglesia Luterana Santa María Peregrina, Stockton, CA. To Register email Edie at thelotts@gmail.com. You will receive the Zoom link in about a week before the meeting.

MMP-YOLO FOOD BANK

Food Banks are a supplemental food source for many in the best of times. Changes and delays in federal payments are putting more at risk of food insecurity. SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) stopped Nov 1 due to federal government shutdown—an estimated 25,000 Yolo County residents have lost their monthly food assistance.

See how you can help at <https://yolofoodbank.org/> Become a monthly donor or volunteer in your area. Are you suffering from hunger and/or inadequate funds for needed groceries? Please see the calendar posted in the narthex. You may give to the Food Bank directly; or, through your regular LCI offering designating Yolo Food Bank on the memo on your check or through PayPal.
