JUNE MMP-PHOENIX COALITION

June's Monthly Ministry Partner is the Phoenix Coalition. In 2013 Mikey Partida was beaten in Davis because of his sexual orientation. In reaction to this, the Davis Phoenix Coalition was created to engage and unite the Davis community to eliminate intolerance, prevent hate, and promote a broader civic culture that embraces all aspects of our diverse community. They support the Davis Queer Teen group (social opportunities and community support for queer teens), Yolo Rainbow Families (social and advocacy opportunities for gender expansive families), and Un Cafecito (leadership training and support of Latin mothers). In addition, they are a leading voice in "The Culture of Community" which brings groups together to defend and support issues important to our community.
